

“I’m on the Road to becoming an RD, Where would I Work?”

By: Katie Anne Riley

You have put all the work in studying, obtaining a good GPA, completing DPD classes, and filling out paper work for DI matching. You are clearly on the path of becoming an RD but are still unsure about all the opportunities for jobs. Here is a list of job options; one could be your perfect fit!

- Hospitals—in patient or out patient
- Assisted living facility/long term care facility
- Food service—school or hospital
- Academic—college/university faculty member/professor
- Research
- Community and Public Health programs
- Correctional facility
- State and county health departments
- Food industries—Ross, Nestle
- Government entities—FDA, USDA, WIC
- Private practice
- Sports Nutrition—athletic facility, professional athletics
- Nutrition journalist/media specialist

The above list is based off of my knowledge. I am not affiliated with any of the above companies or government programs.
